NEW YORK, September 26—(By Associated Press)—In Macedonia the Bulgars and Teutons are still fleeing before the victorious advance of the Allies. In Palestine the disaster to the Turks grows steadily more complete. In the important St. Quentin sector of the Western front, the British and French armies, after hard fighting, have driven on and still more closely to the invested town.

On the Macedonian front the Bulgarians and their German allies still face destruction. Each hour adds fresh news to the details of their disaster. On the Western and the Eastern flanks the Italians, Greeks and British are fast throwing forward men to envelope the enemy, while in the center their is no lagging on the part of the Allied forces despite the difficulty of the territory in which the attacks are being conducted.

in Palestine the remaining Turks have hardly a chance to escape the British forces and friendly tribesmen are closing in on them to the east of Gauged by the swiftness of the strokes that are being delivered by General Allenby, his purpose seems to be to absolutely overwhelm the Ottomans and fulfilment of his plan seems near.

On the Italian front all of the recent engagements reported have been to the advantage of the Allies.

Turkey admits the retreat in Palestine but takes refuge behind the German explanation that it it being conducted according to plans.
